

United Nations
Association of Australia

MEDIA PEACE AWARDS 2016

Promotion of Disability Rights and Issues

FINALIST

Ginger Gorman,
News.com.au

Australia's Most Shocking Statistic: Sexual Abuse and Domestic Violence Against Women with Disabilities

Women with disabilities have been largely invisible in national conversations about domestic violence. This program put their voices front and centre.

The article sought to explain how domestic violence against women with disabilities might differ from the mainstream understanding of family violence. Unveiling the complexities of the issue through weeks of investigative work, the article exposed systemic and societal failures.

