

Promotion of Indigenous Recognition

FINALIST

Jane Bardon

ABC News and Current Affairs

Strong leaders demand better housing, equality and support to work on country.

This ABC News story on the new Gulf of Carpentaria indigenous protected area looked at the role that Aboriginal people could play – with sufficient Federal Government financial support – in protecting the area from the effects of climate change and the benefits to communities of being able to move back to work on their land.

