

MEDIA PEACE AWARDS 2016

Promotion of Indigenous Recognition

WINNER

Sarah Dingle
ABC

WA's Stolen Wages Shame

Thanks to extensive government documents obtained through FOI, including detailed recent actuarial modelling, and a key interview with a whistleblower, Sarah Dingle revealed how a recommended $71 million payout for Aboriginal stolen wages was minimised to $2.5 million.

These calculations had never been revealed before and Sarah was able to tell the inside story of how a government risk-managed its way out of the fair treatment of Aboriginal workers

