

Photojournalism

FINALIST

Belinda Mason and Blur Projects Silent Tears

Silent Tears was a project developed in collaboration with women with disabilities who have experienced violence or women who acquired their disability as a direct result of violence.

Their stories were conveyed through the mediums of glass, photography, film and audio.

