

Print

FINALIST

SBS

Something Terrible Has Happened to Levai

After a long and extensive investigation, reporter Ben Hills told the terrible story of seven year old Levai, whose parents were charged with causing his death after initially claiming he had died as a result of an accident.

Ben's investigation revealed that the NSW Department of Family and Community Services had been aware of the family for some time but had not been able to prevent the young boy's death.

