

Promotion of Women's Rights and Issues

FINALIST

Belinda Hawkins, Steven Baras-Miller, Emily Porrello,
Greg Hassall, Mark Farnell, Tony Connors
ABC Australian Story
A League of their Own

The AFL's move to establish a women's league was the starting point for this story which showed the struggle by women to be able to play serious football.

The story shows the evolution of the league through the unlikely relationship between philanthropist Susan Alberti and player Moana Hope. Public response to the story called for AFL clubs to be more proactive in giving women an equal role in football and prompted condemnation of sexist commentary.

