

United Nations
Association of Australia

MEDIA PEACE AWARDS 2016

Promotion of Women's Rights and Issues

FINALIST

Sarah Dingle
ABC

Inside the Matildas' Strike

This investigation into football's politics and pay gap was an agenda-setting expose of the financial remuneration of female footballers.

Paid below the poverty line despite significant international success, this program explored the triggers for the Matildas becoming the first national team to go on strike and the aftermath.

