MODEL UNITED NATIONS IN SCHOOLS

Program Brochure

“Your goal may be to resolve a conflict, to cope with a natural disaster or to bring nations together on an issue like climate change. You may be playing a role, but you are also preparing for life. You are acting as global citizens.”

UNAAV Model UN Conference Program

A Model UN Conference (MUNC) is a simulation of a session of the UN General Assembly through a creative forum of role play and debate. Students step into the shoes of country ambassadors and draw on negotiation and diplomacy skills to ensure their views are heard. Throughout the conference they have the opportunity to interact with other delegates during the caucus sessions, present their country's position to the General Assembly and move amendments to a Draft UN Resolution and its specific recommendations.

The objective of a MUNC is to find the best possible solution to the problem at hand through multilateral diplomacy. Delegates aim to reach a compromise based upon their own country's national interests, international responsibilities and humanitarian obligations. The outcome is formalised in the adoption of a brand new UN Resolution.

By taking part in a MUNC, students not only learn about UN bodies and member states, but also about the importance of dialogue, diplomacy, negotiation, and building consensus. These skills are fundamental to the development of global citizens and future leaders.

UNAAV Model UN Conference Program

Key Learning Outcomes for students:

- Use problem solving skills to think critically about world issues and global citizenship.
- Learn to see an issue from multiple sides by stepping into the shoes of a foreign country's ambassador.
- Learn the art of diplomacy through negotiation and thinking outside of the box to reach multilateral agreements.
- Improve public speaking, writing and communication skills, increase self-confidence and develop a capacity for leadership.
- Offers a sense of humility and fosters multi-cultural exchanges as students gain a new perspective of being part of something larger that challenges their ideas about their place in the world.
- Team work to solve global challenges opens students' eyes to the power of the international community to make change when working in cooperation.

Victorian Curriculum Links:

MUNC's are targeted at middle to senior secondary school students (Years 9-12) and may be run across multiple classes and/or year levels.

They provide learning outcomes that align with Middle Years Humanities subjects such as Geography, History and Civics and can become key practical exercises in VCE units such as Global Politics, Environmental Science, Economics and Geography.

A MUNC accommodates a minimum of 60 students and a maximum of 120 students.

UNAAV Model UN Topics

The United Nations General Assembly's current focus is around the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (or SDG) adopted on 25th September 2015 as part of the new UN Sustainable Development Agenda to replace the Millennium Development Goals. The 17 goals have 169 targets which the world will aim to meet over the next 15 years by focusing on the core areas of sustainable development, economic empowerment, humanitarian and social partnership and environmental action.

Our 12 new topics offer a greater link to the 17 SDG's while also covering issues that are relevant to students and to the current global discourse both within the UN and on the national level.

Topics to choose from:

- Achieving Gender Equality: Empowering Woman and Girls
- A Right to Freedom: Stopping Human Trafficking
- Asylum Seekers and Refugees: A Global Humanitarian Crisis
- Combating Climate Change: Committing to Global Action
- Countering Global Terrorism: Addressing War, Conflict and International Security
- Fighting Back: The Global Response to Antimicrobial Resistance
- Hear My Voice: Recognising the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- Planet Ocean: Protecting the World's Oceans, Seas and Marine Resources
- Rewrite The Future: Quality Education For All
- The Responsibility To Protect: Preventing Mass Atrocity Crimes
- Wild For Life: Tacking Illegal Wildlife Trade
- Zero Hunger: Addressing Global Poverty and Universal Food Security

"The most beneficial aspect of the conference was being able to assess the diplomatic workings of an organisation so crucial to the global community – especially weighing up the national interests of states."

Conference Management

The UNAA Victoria will:

- Identify the conference topic in consultation with the school.
- Write a Draft Resolution – the central UN document which the students debate and amend on the day.
- Produce all Conference materials, including a Delegate Information Pack for students, a Teacher Information Pack for teaching staff, and a list of countries relevant to the topic.
- Provide teachers with the conference materials and countries for students to represent, at least one month prior to the Conference.
- If the Model UN Conference is to be run as a multi-school event, UNAA Victoria will assist in the promotion of the event to nearby schools and manage all aspects of the registration process.
- Assist teachers with any questions they may have about the Conference.
- Arrange a Secretary-General (Conference moderator) to moderate the proceedings of the day.
- Coordinate and manage all aspects of the Conference including management on the day.
- Post-Conference: provide the school with a student feedback report based on surveys collected at the end of the Conference.

Support required from the school:

- Provide a suitable venue: The venue must be large enough to seat participants comfortably, as well as provide breakout areas for informal caucuses. The venue also needs to have sufficient audio-visual facilities including: projector, lectern and microphones (multiple roving microphones preferred for question time).
- Conference preparation: Assign countries and distribute conference materials to students, as well as assist students in preparing for the day.
- If the conference is to be held as part of any class requirements/curriculum, the school is also responsible for assessment of their students.

About the United Nations Association of Australia (Victorian Division)

The UNAA Victoria is a non-profit, non-government, membership-based community organisation working to promote the aims and ideals of the United Nations and seeking support for the UN, its programs and agencies.

A primary purpose of the UNAA is to raise awareness about the UN and to engage the Australian community on key issues on the UN agenda. We play a critical role in connecting Australians with the United Nations and educating the community on key international and local issues covering environmental, human rights and social justice topics.

The UNAA Victoria launched the Model UN Conference program in universities in 2003. The program was extended to Victorian secondary schools in 2006. Since then the program has grown considerably with conferences held in Victoria's major universities as well as throughout metropolitan and regional Victoria in many government, independent and catholic schools. Many conferences are held in partnership with the Victorian Department of Education and Training (DET). In 2014 the first Model UN Conference was held in French for VCE students studying that language, followed by successful conferences in both French and German in 2015 and Italian in 2016. Following on from the great success of these Model UN's and with support from the Languages Unit, DET, UNAA Victoria is running German, French, Indonesian and Italian language conferences in 2017.
