

MODEL UNITED NATIONS IN SCHOOLS

Book a UNAA Victoria Model UN Conference at your school and see your students shine as state ambassadors of the UN General Assembly as they use their negotiation, debating and diplomacy skills to pass a new UN Resolution.

Our Model UN Conferences are run as an all-day program at your school and support key learning areas of the Victorian Curriculum from Middle Years Humanities to VCE. We have recently aligned our topics with the UN's Sustainable Development Goals and we now have 8 new global topics to choose from when you book a Model UN Conference at your school or in your community!

- Achieving Gender Equality: Empowering Women and Girls
- Asylum Seekers and Refugees: A Global Humanitarian Crisis
- Zero Hunger: Addressing Global Poverty and Universal Food Security
- Hear My Voice: Recognising the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- Combating Climate Change: Committing to Global Action
- Planet Ocean: Protecting the World's Oceans, Seas and Marine Resources
- Rewrite The Future: Quality Education For All
- Countering Global Terrorism: Addressing War, Conflict and International Security

TO BOOK A MODEL UN CONFERENCE OR FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Sally Northfield | Education Program Coordinator |
03 9607 1363 | sally@unaavictoria.org.au |

United Nations Association of Australia
Victorian Division